

June Lamoureux is a long-time professional artist who moved to Hot Springs Village, AR in 2011.

She works mainly in watercolor, acrylics and pen and ink, winning awards in all of these. Her art has included commissioned work for various companies and individuals that range from towboats on the Mississippi to house portraits, murals, faux finishes and decorative furniture.

June has also taught drawing and painting to children and adults.

She is a member of Ouachita Artists Gallery in Mount Ida, Brushstrokes in Hot Springs Village, Artist Workshop Gallery in Hot Springs. June also belongs to the Traditional Art Guild of Hot Springs.

Her focus now is to continue the process of discovery thru experimentation in her primary mediums and to create works of beauty and lasting interest.

June can be reached via email at - jflamoureux@earthlink.net.